“ I just found out an hour ago Fred passed and I am not afraid to say I burst into tears. I wish I could have talked to him one more time before he passed. I always loved talking to him. Whenever I came to Freds house in California (we called it "the farm") Fred and I would spend a good part of the day talking, about everything. And it was always fun exploring around the farm because Fred accumulated so much interesting "stuff" on the property over the years. It was a real museum. I noticed what a wonderful Grandfather he was to Cody and Carson. I know he was a good father too because I know how good all his children are. I miss your sence of humor, your love of bluegrass music (I think of you everytime I hear bluegrass), for being kind and caring and a great Father and Garandfather to all the people who are very important in my life. I miss you Fred. You will always be part of my life.

“ Ava,

I am so sorry for your loss. Our parents have been such an integral part of our lives for such a long time it is difficult to imagine life without them. You and your family remain in my thoughts and prayers.
