“ I would like to express my condolences on the passing of Punky. My memories are of Punkyville when I was back for a class reunion. I also remember Joyce helping Mrs. Barnes students with reading and other school issues we needed help with. Thank you for your kindness and helping back then. You made an impression on me.

“ Joyce and family. Great friend and neighbor! If you had a need and Punky was aware of it, he was right there to offer a helping hand. Worked with Punky for years. Nobody worked harder! Others who worked on the 'barn crew' will remember seeing smoke curling out of someone's pocket. Everyone was fair game. We had a lot of fun and did a whole lot of work. Won't forget Punky as long as I can remember my own name.

“ I just met Punky for the first time in September. My wife and I were out on a motorcycle ride and stopped in to Punkyville. He greeted us like we were old friends and took us on an extensive tour of his town. We talked, shared stories and left there with a treasure to add to my collection. I returned a few months later to trade some signs with him and continued to share stories with him. What a blessing to meet him and to be able to have something that came from Punkyville to add to my collection and tell stories to others about. He brought a lot of smiles to people from all over by creating Punkyville and giving us all a chance to re-live the "good ol days". He will be missed.

Prayers for all of his family as you navigate through this difficult time.

“ So sorry to learn of Punky's passing. Several years ago, we both had to appear for possible jury selections. He had me in stitches awaiting the selection process. He was such fun. Prayers for all.

“ Dear Joyce and Family,
Please accept my sympathy in the passing of your dear loved one. A mighty good man. A good friend — actually to so many. We appreciate his service to our country while under arms and to this community in so very many ways. “Charlie,” as I remember Mr. Preston Field warmly saying so often Years ago, Punky, will be greatly missed. May the Good Lord comfort.

“ Joyce I believe that Jim and I will never forget his smiling, laughing look and the stories he told about anything and everything. Jim and Punky became such close friends over the years they knew each other. Jim would drive him anywhere he wanted to go. It got both of them out of the house and gave them something to do. I will always remember him joking with me and saying "You want me don't ya". He was someone you could never forget because of his joking smiling face and eyes. If you need anything just call and Jim would do anything for you. Jim is going to miss him greatly. Love and prayers to your family.
