“ I am so sorry for your loss. I think about this man all the time, send him email and everything else. He was an excellent teacher. When I first met him I told him I was worried about taking his class because I didnt really have an interest in history and he tolld me not to worry. He said as long as I come to class Ill be fine. He was right, he made history very interesting for me and had me look at it in a whole new way. He was a great man and excellent teacher. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Today was the first time I have looked at the Gateway website in the last two weeks and I was deeply saddened to see that Mr. Hall has passed away. I was in his Spring 2009 U.S. History class and I have to say it was one of my favorites. I have always loved history and it was great to have a teacher that loved it as much as I do. I can still remember how excited he was when we got to WWII and how much he loved the technology. I will always remember that class. My thoughts go out to his family and friends.

“ What a shock to hear of Alan's death. I know it was very difficult to lose a love one so suddenly. Alan's funeral, though, was truly a celebration. Alan certainly was someone who followed Christ's example by letting his light shine and, therefore, touching and making such a difference in many lives. I feel blessed to have known and worked with him. Alan's passing has given me pause to reflect on the fragility of life. I will pledge to live more authentically, love more deeply, and consciously nurture my relationships with others. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Ressie, and your family.

“ Ressie, Adam, Rebecca, Vicki, and Wendy,

Words cannot express my deepest sympathy for your loss of Alan. I was heartsick to hear the news of his passing. I will most remember Alan for his genuine kindness and willingness to help any and all in any way he could. His life was a model of integrity and Christian kindness. Please know that you are, and will continue to be in my prayers. We cannot understand these things but we do know God's love for Alan -and for you is immeasurable. I pray that God will hold you all in the palm of his hand and comfort you as only he can do.

“ You don't know us, but we are neighbors a bit up the road on Hayes Station. We're new enough that we have not met many who live in our community, but it's obvious from reading Alan's obituary that everyone - family, neighbors, the Falmouth/Pendleton Co. community, and colleagues and students at Gateway - has lost an incredible person. Your family will be in our thoughts.
