

Anna Pearl Castleman Taylor

February 17, 1935 - July 18, 2008

Anna Pearl Castleman Taylor, 73, of Cincinnati, Ohio, formerly of Falmouth, Kentucky, passed away on July 18, 2008, at the Hospice of Mercy Hospital – Western Hills. Born on February 17, 1935 in Falmouth, she was the only child of the late James Castleman and Hallie Mae Hand. Anna moved from Falmouth to Covington, Kentucky, where she graduated from Holmes High School in 1953.

Anna married her childhood sweetheart in 1960 and became Mrs. James Taylor, the title she loyally and proudly wore until her death on July 18, 2008.

As a mother of three, her children fueled her existence. Anna dedicated her life to loving and supporting her family. When she wasn't doting on her family, she enjoyed sharing time with family and friends, perusing local flea markets and crafting, her hobbie.

Anna will best be remembered for her unwavering strength and determination by those she leaves to cherish her memory.

Surviving are her three children: Steven, Stephanie and Sonya Taylor, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; her grandchildren: Taylor James Fields and Devaunte' Matthew Williams; her devoted sister-in-law, nephew, aunt, cousins, and a host of dear friends.

In her words she asks that you remember her with smiles and laughter because that is how she'll remember you.

A visitation will be held from 12-2:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 24, 2008, at the Cedars of Lebanon Chapel at Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio, under the direction of Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth.

Online condolences at www.woodheadfuneralhome.com

```
var item = document.getElementById("tukios_iframe");

// Now calculate our height.
if (item){
//Looks like we have tukios_iframe. Lets do stuff
var currentWidth = item.clientWidth;
var proposedHeight = (currentWidth + 80) * 9/16;
item.height=proposedHeight;
}
```

PDF Printable Version