“ Our thoughts are with you all this week. Betty was a kind and lovely lady whom I consider it a privilege to have known. Her children and grandchildren are certainly a testament to her love and character. Her life-long testimony is something to be celebrated as we rest in the knowledge that she is with the Lord.

“ One of the many privileges of working at hospice is getting to know new people. I really enjoyed getting to know each of you over the past weeks.

It was such an honor to help care for Betty during her final days. She was certainly well loved and I know she will be sorely missed.

Please know that I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers over the coming weeks. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance.

Sincerely,

Lisa Mansfield, RN
