“ There are 3 things that will endure: Faith, Hope, Love And the greatest of these is Love

Thank you Uncle Charlie for the legacy of love that you have left for each one of us. You had a way of making us feel so special. You will forever live in our hearts.

“ Your warm smile, your bright shining eyes, your warm hugs all will be missed. Your memory remains as big as your personality. Thank you for taking me as one of the family and for loving my boys so much. You will be missed.

“ Please accept our sincere sympathy on thge death of Charles. Our family met Mr. Kelly when our brother; Fr. Roger Kriege came to St. John Church. Charles was a good friend to Fr. Roger. It was always a joy for us to see and talk with Mr. Kelly when we came to any of the services at St. Johns. He had a warm friendly and very welcoming personality. He will surely be missed. Sincerely, the Kriege Family

“ My sincere condolences to the Kelly family. I had only met Charlie a few times but I remember his strong character and warm smile and was surprised he already knew my family when I first met him. He checked us out pretty good. We enjoy looking at his barn across the ridge and always think of him when we pass the front entrance. We have lost a valuable treasure of our community, Pendleton Cty and our neighborhood. Charlie was the real deal. He embodied and symbolized the best of our community. “ I was fortunate enough to meet Mr. Kelly at church when my husband and I got together. He invited all with open arms and with his wonderful big smile. I will never forget his lovely smile and charm. St. John's mass will not be the same w/o our dear friend, but I know he will be there watching over us. Heaven has gained a gem and I know we will see him again. Mr. Kelly will always be in our hearts. Our prayers are with his family during this hard time.

“ When you look in the dictionary under "Irish Charm" your picture is there. Time to order that hot ham and cheese and a coffee. I will always remember you as a caring friend.

“ Monica has said it better than I can. Uncle Charlie had a quick wit and that trademark sly look, but always with equal love in his heart...endearing traits that will be remembered and missed. And, I will be sure to root loud enough for the both of us during UK games!

“ Uncle Charlie Lessons: *How to play wicked practical jokes! *How to subtly wink to pull off said joke ! *How to laugh like the devil when you pulled it off! *The value of a hard days work. *Just what family means. *Exactly what a good hug is. *Knowing how it feels to be loved.

I will miss you more than I can ever express. I hope that I can live up to your legacy & pass it on. I will forever cherish your memory. Tonight there's a wonderful Heavenly family reunion....send them all my love. xoxo
