“ Dear Family,

I would like to extend my sincere condolences on the passing of C. W. It has been years since we were able to see each other, but as the obituary suggested, I join many in having fond memories of those many years ago when C.W. played a prominent role in our youth. Clever and funny, but insightful and brilliant was Charles William!

We appreciate his service to our country, and regret that JUST last evening I made a commitment that will make it impossible to join Post 109 in rendering fitting honors to our departed comrade on Saturday, but my thoughts and prayers will be with you.

Blessings, Charles Donald
