Charlotte was a wonderful sweet lady that was truly faithful to her Lord. I'm so sorry for your loss. You know the Bible tells us ... to be Absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. If your a Christian of course and we all know Charlotte was. She loved the Lord so much as she also did her family. She always prayed for each one of them. It hurts the ones left behind, but really we should celebrate because this very moment she suffers no more. She has run the race and won the battle. The Lord has promised good to her. Well done my good and faithful child he has probably already said. I'm sure if there is but one last thing she would want is for her family to be in heaven one day with her. But only you can make that choice. She's getting her Victory right as we speak. She never died only the body, her spirit will live on through eternity. Oh what joy fills her soul now. My heart goes out to her family, I just praise God she isn't suffering and in a much better place, finally getting to touch our masters hand. You will be missed my friend. May God give you all comfort and peace during you time of sorrow, and pain. I will be praying for you all as I know she did every day. I also pray her prayers are answered and you all are together again someday. She truly was a wonderful , sweet, faithful , God loving women.
