

Christine Baker Philpot

April 5, 1943 - May 9, 2023

Christine Baker Philpot, 80, wife of Raymond Philpot, went to be with Jesus on Tuesday, May 9, 2023, with all her family by her side in Lexington, KY. She was born in Corbin, KY on April 5, 1943, to the late Alexander and Mary Storms Baker. Christine attended Campbell County High School, and on February 4, 1961, she would marry Raymond. For the next 62 years, they would build a wonderful life together full of faith and love for family.

Christine worked for a family owned and operated grocery store called “Ray’s Market” for several years, then went on to work at Farmer’s National Bank for 28 years. After retiring from the bank, she worked as a city clerk for the City of Berry for 10 years.

Christine was a devoted wife and mother. She formed a Christian gospel group “The Joyful Messengers”, along with her husband Ray, Wilma Sissom, Ima Mullins, and Bessie Lyons, and together they performed in many churches in state and out of state. She was a member of the Family Worship Center and a devout Christian. She always loved spreading the word of Jesus.

Christine is survived by her loving husband, Raymond Philpot of Berry, KY; her sons Kenny (Linda) Philpot and Chris (Annette) Philpot, both of Berry, KY; her daughter Sherri (Wilson) Casey of Cynthiana, KY; two sisters: Wilma Sissom of Alexandria, KY and Ima Mullins of Ft. Thomas, KY; two brothers James E. Baker of Ft. Thomas, KY and Larry Baker of Alexandria, KY; 8 Grandchildren: Kyle Philpot, Drew (Morgan) Philpot, Caleb (Katlynn) Philpot,

Madison (Jordan) Waits, Bobby Breidhaupt, Alexa (Mason) Haywood, Lauren (Adam) Hill, and Barrett Philpot; and 12 Great-Grandchildren: Bryson, Scarlett, Bennett, Story, Violet, Leah, Emmett, Mac, Elias, Aiden, Adalyn, and one expected in the fall of 2023.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother Hascol Baker and 2 sisters Claire Baker and Joanne Heiert.

Visitation for Christine will be on Monday, May 15, 2023 from 4-7PM at the Woodhead Funeral Home in Berry. A second visitation will take place on Tuesday, May 16, 2023 from Noon-1PM, also at the funeral home, with funeral services following at 1PM, with Bro. Terry McDuffey officiating. Christine's final resting place will be the Pythian Grove Cemetery in Berry.

“ Christine was one of the first five people in Berry a little over 40 years to greet me and make me feel welcome. She has been a kind and wonderful friend over the years. She was a kind-beautiful woman who always had a smile and kind word for you. She will be truly missed.

“ Christine, I will miss you very much, ill visit you at your resting place often. I will miss our talks we had together and the laughter we shared. You had a kind, loving heart and your love for our Lord was strong. I know you're with him now and you are watching over your loved ones. I love you dear friend, hug and kiss Jesus for me, bye for now. Love, Brenda Murphy Taylor
