“ I remember when I was younger, I had a mark on my nose and when Chris seen me, he would make a joke about it, and from then and even into our adult lives, whenever Chris would see me, the first thing he would say was, "Hey, what's that on your nose." It was our little joke. I pray for you Aunt Janie, MaryAnn, Annelise and to the rest of the family. Chris was a wonderful cousin and I will never forget him. I love you Chris, may you rest in peace.
