“ I didn't know Danny that well, but he knew my brother and I who spent the early parts of our lives growing up in Berry in the 1970s. Danny also knew our mother Mary Elizabeth Nagel Hall. I came back to Berry 2013-2018, and would occasionally see Danny walking by the churches. I've no doubt that you're up in the Heavens looking over Berry.

“ Danny was a great and faithful member of the Berry Baptist Church. Always a kind word to people and he would keep our porch flowers watered. Sometimes he was a door keeper, held the door open for people coming in or going out. He had limitations could not do much but served well.
