“Darrell is my grandpa and I remember him taking me fishing and hunting every time I went down there. He was an amazing grandpa. Even when he was sick he went to play just to see me perform. I love you papaw. See you later.

We all love and will miss you you always have me great advice and taught me a lot about fishing ... You will forever be in my heart with dad aka Leonard Dixon. Rest in peace and save me a spot for I will someday come join you and dad tell him we love him and I pray to the heavenly father that he touches your soul and gives you those well deserved beautiful wings. You will forever be our uncle D... Rest high on your beautiful journey to the other side ..until we meet again I hold dear in my heart the memories..thank you for those. Love Peanut
