“ Aunt Ruth was fun to be with, She was funny and usually happy.
She took me fishing and swimming and visiting other kin folk, when i stayed with my grandparents for the summer. She really liked to embarass me in front of elders, that silly boy from the city she would say.
i love you aunt Ruth, We're going to miss you.

“ Mamaw always made Christmas Eve so festive. She forced all of her teenaged grandchildren to sing Christmas carols and she recorded us on her cassette tapes.

We also had fun playing Sorry, where she had the moves for each card memorized. If she drew an 11 she knew exactly where to put her game piece. Scrabble was a game we played a lot too. She was so fun.
