

Gene

August 6, 1930 - January 21, 2013

Mr. Elbert (Gene) Flaugher, age 82, of Falmouth, KY, died on January 21, 2013, after an extended illness. He was born in Lenoxburg, KY to the late Louie and Mayme Thome Flaugher.

He is survived by his wife, Joyce (Sullivan) Flaugher; son, Tim (Angie) Flaugher; daughter, Tammy (Dean) Ammerman; daughter, Jennifer Harper; son-in-law, Phillip (Margaret) Harper; grandchildren: Dawn (Jonathan) Thornberry, April (Jaime) Meadows, Barry (Monica) Ammerman, Cassandra (DJ) Jacobs, Justin and Olivia Flaugher; 11 great grandchildren; brother, Allen (MaeJo) Flaugher; sister, Mary Sue Courtney; sister-in-law, Carolyn Flaugher. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers: Bob, Charlie, and Pete, and one grandson.

Mr. Flaugher was a veteran of the US Army. In his career, he was the owner and operator of the Shell Service Station, a Milk Hauler, Assistant Supervisor of the KY State Highway Maintenance, Director of Prison Industries for the KY Department of Corrections, and Mayor of the City of Falmouth for 7 years. He also served on the Pendleton County Board of Education for 16 years. He was a member of the Falmouth Baptist Church and served in many positions.

```
var item = document.getElementById("tukios_iframe");

// Now calculate our height.
if (item){ //Looks like we have tukios_iframe. Lets do stuff
var currentWidth = item.clientWidth;
var proposedHeight = (currentWidth + 80) * 9/16;
item.height=proposedHeight;
}
```

PDF Printable Version