

Geneva Elenora Butcher King

April 3, 1923 - November 18, 2017

Geneva Elenora Butcher King, 94, of Falmouth, passed away on Saturday, November 18, 2017, at the River Valley Nursing Home in Butler. Born in Harrison County on April 3, 1923, she was the daughter of the late Lester and Gladys McClanahan Butcher and grew up attending the Antioch Mills Christian Church. On December 22, 1947 she married Will A. King, and he predeceased her on May 2, 1999. She was a homemaker, loved bowling, and was an active member of the Pendleton County Senior Citizens.

She is survived by her two daughters: Diana Livengood of Falmouth and Nancy King of Lexington; one grandson, David Stone; a brother, James Kenneth (Jane) Butcher of Cynthiana, a sister-in-law, Martha Butcher of Claryville; and a host of extended family and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Carl Butcher.

Graveside services will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 21, 2017 at the Riverside Cemetery, Falmouth, with Bro. Evan Meyer officiating.

Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth is taking care of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to Hospice of Hope: 909 Kenton Station Drive, Maysville, KY 41056. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.woodheadfuneralhome.com

“ Geneva fly high with the angels. I took care of Geneva back on 2012. I just recently started working back at river valley about 2 months ago. Geneva never changed she was the same person I met in 2012. It didn't matter how her day was going she would always be up in her wheelchair and ready to start her day. Some days when she had a lot of energy all boy you would know it. She always had a smile on her face. She was a awesome and loving women I will never forget her. She will always be in my heart and all of the girl's heart's at river valley. May your precious soul rest and fly high with the angels. Rip Geneva King.
