

Genevieve Schanding Ammerman

December 29, 1925 - July 20, 2023

Genevieve Schanding Ammerman, 97, a lifelong resident of Falmouth, KY, passed away on Thursday, July 20, 2023, at the River Valley Nursing Home in Butler, KY. Born on Dec. 29, 1925 at the former Booth Hospital in Covington, KY, she was the daughter of the late George and Emma Ritter Schanding. In 1945 she married Kenzie Lee Ammerman, and her dear husband of 29 years, preceded her in death on October 9, 1976, at the age of 54. A 1943 Falmouth High School graduate, Genevieve helped her father, who owned and operated the former K & T Restaurant and the Three L Hotel and Restaurant. She swept, cleaned rooms and sold Greyhound bus tickets for 19 cents each. Later she helped her mother at the Lakeside Restaurant. Genevieve was a fantastic cook; all of her food was made with love. She devoted a great deal of time and energy into her cooking, and providing healthy options for her family was important to her. Known for her green beans, cabbage and carrots, fruit salad, and deviled eggs, "Mama," as she was known, greeted her grandchildren with treats of wheat germ and honey when they arrived home after school, and she always had the best home remedies for whatever ailed them. In later years, she was often found sitting by the window and watching the world outside. Many family and friends who passed her home on Dickerson Lane, stopped for visits at her window. Genevieve was a resilient woman who devoted her life to her family.

Surviving to cherish her memory are her daughter and caregiver Vicki (Greg) Marsh of Falmouth; 5 grandchildren: Stephanie Gregg and Angie Snapp, both of Falmouth, Christina (Chris) Keeling of Lexington, KY, Amy Pugh and Amanda (Travis) Keeton, both of Falmouth; nine great grandchildren: Corey (Skylar) Gregg, Zack Partin, MacKenzie (Paige) Mulloy, Tanner Keeton, Landon Snapp, Emma Keeling, Hunter Keeton, Luke Keeling, and Jase Keeton; four great great grandchildren: Laney Gregg, Hendrix Gregg, Grayson Partin, and Zeke Gregg; and a host of extended family and friends.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by two brothers: Harold Schanding in 1994 and Russell Schanding in 1936.

Funeral services will be held at 2 pm, on Sunday, July 23, 2023, at Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth, with Kevin Barnard. The visitation will be from 11-2 pm on Sunday preceding the service. Memorials are suggested to the the Hardin-Browning Post #109: 111 Montjoy Street, Falmouth, KY 41040.

Interment will take place at the Riverside Cemetery, Falmouth.

“ So sorry to hear of your Mothers passing. When Dickle was alive we would go to McDonalds and she was one of the people we would sit with and talk to about how Falmouth used to be. She had such memories of our parents and grandparents and we loved hearing the great stories. She had known my father J P Field. Slot of people didn't remember him and she could talk to me about him. It helped me alot. I will miss her but I know she is in the spirit world and in no pain. She is having a great reunion with all her family and friends who have passed on before.

“ Mama always made the green beans with carrots and potatoes for the holiday meals. One year, she used the packaged baby carrots instead of regular carrots. When I opened the lid to get me helping and yummy carrot and saw those baby carrots, I was so disappointed. I asked her why she ruined the green beans with baby carrots. Every since that day, she always put the 'fat' carrots as she called them and laughed and reminded me of when I called her out for the baby carrots. She always wanted to make sure everyone got something good to eat that they liked ❤️❤️❤️
