

Glen Aylor Hankinson

January 17, 1947 - December 22, 2025

Glen Aylor Hankinson, 78, of Dry Ridge, Kentucky, passed away peacefully at his home on Monday, December 22, 2025.

He was born on January 17, 1947, to the late Marshall and Margie Hopperton Hankinson. Glen was a retired truck driver who took great pride in a life of hard work and independence. He loved the outdoors and could often be seen driving his golf cart or side by side down the road to Williamstown Lake or on the mower in his yard. Known and loved by his neighbors, Glen was affectionately crowned the “Mayor of Reeves Road,” a title that reflected his friendly spirit and strong sense of community.

On February 1, 2018, Glen was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 49 years, Sally Ryle Hankinson, whom he deeply missed.

Glen is survived by his children, Lisa (Jim) Lowe and Glen D. “Hank” (Debbie) Hankinson; his grandchildren, Emmalie Hankinson, Chelsea (Brad) Sipple, Nicole (Ethan) Strader, and Jayden Lowe; and his great-grandchildren, Millie Strader and Easton Sipple. He is also survived by his siblings, Marshall Donald Hankinson and Terry Wayne Hankinson.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ We use to have a great time riding on hogridge. He was a very caring person if you asked he would do anything for you. I will miss not being able to say bye. Bye my freind rest in peace.

Jennyweber - December 23, 2025 at 08:50 AM