“ Just wanted to say how sorry we are for the loss of Harry. He was a dear man. We stood in line for a long time and decided that the longer we stayed the longer the family would have to stay and we knew you had to be so tired since it would have been after 10pm before we could have gotten in. You all are in our prayers. We love you all.

“ My fondest memory of Harry (and Rose) was when I would sleep over with my best friend, Colleen. The next morning as we woke for breakfast, Harry came in from the barn where he attended to the needs of his dairy cattle and Rose served us homemade cinnamon rolls. They had already been up and working for hours. My memory is of a happy man at the head of the table who was very proud of his family. He will be missed.
