“ As a supplier to my company for years, I've known Howard for over 30 of them. He helped me get started in the early years and grew to be a trusted and valued friend.

When the alternator went out on my airplane, he fixed it and wanted only a ride in the plane for payment. That promised ride let to the attainment of his own pilots license and years of us flying together to lord only knows where.

I'm sure gonna miss him!
