

Iva J. Wilson

May 17, 1918 - March 13, 2009

```
var item = document.getElementById("tukios_iframe");
```

```
// Now calculate our height.
```

```
if (item){
```

```
//Looks like we have tukios_iframe. Lets do stuff
```

```
var currentWidth = item.clientWidth;
```

```
var proposedHeight = (currentWidth + 80) * 9/16;
```

```
item.height=proposedHeight;
```

```
}
```

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

JS

“ My father is Leslie B. Switzer, who is the son of John Switzer, who was Iva's brother. She is my great-aunt. A few years back my husband, Brad and I came to visit her in her home in Kentucky. We went to lunch with Aunt Iva and her daughter Evalloyd. I am so glad that we had this time to spend with her because the others times I had been around her I was very young and didn't remember. I was sorry to her of her passing, but through my Dad I knew she had not been doing well. My whole family's thoughts and prayers are with the family now.

Joanne Switzer-Carpenter - March 16, 2009 at 12:00 AM

EW

“ As a little girl my cousin and I stayed at Aunt Iva's a lot. We were always going home with Evalloyd. When I had My first baby, Aunt Iva was one of the first to come and see me and my new daughter.

Elizabeth Wade - March 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BD

“ Evalloyd:
I was so sorry to hear about the death of your mother. She was a dear friend and so special to my mother, Irene Harp, they were friends for years. May you take comfort in the precious memories you have of your mother. Blessings. Betty Jean

Betty Jean Harp Dailey - March 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM