

James E. Clifford

December 16, 1957 - December 14, 2015

James Edward Clifford, 57, died December 7, 2015 at his home near Cynthiana, KY due to aggressive cancer. He was born December 16, 1957 in Harrison County and was a graduate of Harrison County High School. His loving wife, Cindy Marie Rose Clifford, survives. He was the first-born son of Kenneth H. Clifford and Marie Conyers Clifford, who survive, and the beloved brother of John W. [Teresa] Clifford, Paris, KY, who survives. Three children also survive: Debbie and Patti Clifford of Harrison County, and James D. [Rachael] Clifford of Lanesville, IN. Also, two step-children survive: Amanda Shadd of Elizabethtown, KY and Lee [Angela] Shadd of Vine Grove, KY. An aunt, uncle, five grandchildren, cousins, co-workers and friends mourn his passing. His strong, weather-hardened hands reflected farm-related labor, but his heart reflected a soft, intense love of nature's beauty and changing seasons. He loved and respected all animals. He enjoyed birdwatching, especially hummingbirds at his feeders. He also enjoyed doing woodcrafts. Graveside services will be held at 1:00 pm Monday, December 14, 2015 at the Pythian Grove Cemetery in Berry, KY. Woodhead Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements. Memorial contributions are suggested to Hospice of the Bluegrass, 1317 Hwy 62E Cynthiana, KY 41031 or to the Flora Shropshire Animal Shelter, 1751 N. Lair Rd., Cynthiana, KY 41031.

Tribute Wall

CF

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for the family.

Connie Fryman - December 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM