“ Jimmy was such a wonderful man and a great neighbor, and was ALWAYS ready to share a kind word...or a funny story. I cannot imagine anyone who ever had the pleasure of his friendship could find a better example of a friend. God bless his family...Jimmy will be missed and remembered fondly not only by myself and my family, but surely countless others in this community he loved. Prayers,,

“ As a youngster, my family and the Haleys did some camping together. We also enjoyed talking on the CB Ham radio. As an adult, I had the pleasure of working with Jim & Margaret when Jim drove a school bus and Margaret worked in the kitchen at Southern Elementary. After they retired, I enjoyed running into Jim & Margaret at Howard's Place and chatting with them. Two very special people. Margaret and family, I am so sorry about Jim. You are in my thoughts and prayers!
