“ When I was working in 1100, I travelled with Jerry; also worked with him in the shop. He was a good man and father, as well as a hard worker. RIP, Jerry.

“ To my dear old neighbor, for most of the last 15 years, who was often the 1st person I'd see when I got off work everyday. Always inviting me over to take a minute, always asking how my wife and boys are doing. I have missed him dearly the last few years and will always remember his kindness. I don't believe he ever said no to anything I ever asked for. I will always cherish the memories my friend. Brian Dargis on behalf of April, Nathan, Preston, and Jayson. Rest In Peace My Friend !!
