“ Family, While unfortunately, Jerry and I had not had much time together for years, he was probably my longest standing friend in life--memories of his coming up to Mom and Dad's to watch TV or to go to town on Saturday nights as kids, hunting, fishing, and working together, and many others, are vivid--like it was yesterday, our sojourn on earth being short, at best. But they are good memories, like those that will sustain and encourage you all, now that your loved one and my old friend has "graduated" to higher ground. Blessings, Don Wells
