“ From the soda fountain counter at Moreland's to the halls and offices of the courthouse, Joanie was always observed as a lovely, hardworking lady. Fortunately for me, it was a frequent occasion and always a pleasure to exchange a greeting and a few words as she so willingly went to work tidying up after everyone at the end of the courthouse day. She has been a special lady, and will be sorely missed (down here!).

Going to miss seeing Joanie at the grocery or beauty shop. One of my very favorite Falmouth ladies. Prayers for the family.

Love this woman. I worked with her years ago cleaning and I will say I thought I new it all when it came to cleaning but this lady was the best. She taught me so much. All these years there hasn't been a day when I'm cleaning I haven't thought of Joanie. She will be greatly missed.
