“ My deepest condolences for your loss. I loved working with this sweet lady at DAV. I didn't really know her for the longest time, but then when I got to know her, I realized how genuine and funny she was! I'll never forget... one time she had on this pair of snowman earrings and I told her how much I liked them. Next thing I know, she took them off and put them in my hand!!! I asked her what she was doing and she said "I've got lots of earrings but only a few good friends and you like these, so I want you to have them". I still have them to this day and I've tried to follow her example!

*Love and Prayers,
