

Lois Josephine Campbell Wilson

September 7, 1919 - September 4, 2011

Biography

Lois Josephine Campbell Wilson, 91, of Falmouth, passed away on Sunday, September 4, 2011, with her daughters at her side. Born in Butler, Kentucky, on September 7, 1919, she was a daughter of the late James Harrison and Faye Josephine Ellis Campbell. She married James Lowe Wilson, who preceded her in death in 1998. For 39 years, she was a teacher in Kenton and Pendleton Counties, working primarily at the former Morgan Elementary, where she was the cheerleading sponsor and the sponsor of the Morgan Young Historians. She also taught at the former Morgan High School, the Pendleton County Middle School, and the Pendleton County High School. Her areas of instruction included English, Reading, and Kentucky History. She was a member of the Morgan Christian Church, a member of the Pendleton County Retired Teachers Association, a Kentucky Colonel, a member of the Kay Knarr Homemakers, and a member of the Pendleton County Historical Society. In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by two brothers: Ellis and Robert Campbell.

She is survived by two daughters: Toni Alice Wilson Riley of Hopkinsville, KY, and Barbara Gail Wilson (Emile R. Zola) of Indiana, PA; two granddaughters: Elizabeth Alice Riley and Catherine Margaret Riley; one brother, George S. Campbell of Butler, KY; one sister, Mary Lee Campbell Sands of Louisville, KY; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

The funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, September 8, 2011, at the Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth, with Pastor David Wu officiating. The visitation will be from 4-8 pm on Wednesday at the funeral home. Interment will take place in the Morgan Cemetery, Pendleton County. Memorial contributions are suggested to the Pendleton County Education Foundation for the Lois Campbell Wilson Scholarship.

“Mrs. Wilson was my 7th grade teacher at Morgan. I will always remember her as the great Kentucky History teacher. She loved the history of our state. She was a great teacher. I'm sure she will be greatly missed. Another one of the great teachers of Morgan has gone to be with the greatest teacher of all Our Lord and Savior. Blessings to her family and friends. Her life on this earth was a great success.

“ As a fellow teacher and friend during the years at PMS I am saddened to hear of Lois's passing. She gladdened the hearts of many while she was here and guided the way for many young people. She lived a beautiful life in the eyes of our Lord. My condolences to the family.

“ Gail & Toni, I am so sorry for the loss of your mom. I have many good memories of the times I spent at your house. Your Mom was always so good to us. We spent time with each other some, and I enjoyed that. She was so good to me when we lost Josh. 89 and she was baking and driving to my house with the best apple pie. Very kind! She always gave Josh her walnuts to sell. My kids enjoyed her. May she rest in peace after a long, happy life with two special daughters. My prayers are with you and if you need anything just call. She will be greatly missed.
