“ My dear mother...it has been 2 1/2 years, and yet, it feels like yesterday. You lived a remarkable life. You married the best man I ever knew..(my father) Harold Shepperd..I am forever grateful for the love, compassion and comfort you and dad give to me during my years of illness, that no one else ever knew.

You were truly an amazing woman, I cannot wait when it is my turn to turn that road in my life to see you and dad there waiting...my faith is stronger now than ever before. Michelle has since married, teaching and is a wonderful gift to me from God. Joey, Bonny and Addison and I all still attend Gardnersville Christian Church. I love you, I miss you, and my love burns deeper for you both, more than anyone could ever know.. Dad...you were the greatest man, no one can take that from you. You were my hero, and mom, you were my angel.....until we meet again
