“ To Marjorie's children: I had each of you in school at Northern Elementary and you were ideal students; the kind who make teaching so rewarding. That is a testimony to your excellent upbringing. I didn't know your father well, but my husband did and speaks of what a fine man he was. However, I was privileged to know your mother because she was very involved in her children's education. Marjie was the kind of parent I wish every child had! I know you will miss her terribly, but I know you have the blessed assurance that she is now with our Lord.
