“ Geneva was my mom's favorite person. My mom and dad were Sinnett (Boss) Thompson and Anna Lee Perrin Thompson. My dad was Harry Million, Sr.'s first cousin, but after Harry's mother died, Harry was raised by Dad's parents, Tommy T. and Stella Hamm Thompson. Dad and Harry were like brothers growing up. I remember going over to Harry and Geneva's house when I was young. They were the best hosts. We'd play the piano and eat wonderful food and play games. Mom and Geneva would get their heads together and talk about old times and a lot of people. They knew everyone in Pendleton and Harrison County and probably Grant Co. too. They would laugh and I know that was Mom's happiest times. (Mom died May of 1997). Several years ago I talked to Geneva and she told me about all her siblings and there was a lot of music in her home, growing up. She always had that wonderful smile. Always.

Will miss her.

“ We really enjoyed getting to know Geneva when she and Katie Bell shared a room at Cedar Ridge, spring 2007. Geneva kept Katie's spirits high and ours as well.

She was quite a lady and will be missed!
