“ My sympathies to the family. It has been many years since I saw most of you. I grew up next door to Maybelle and Keg and have fond memories of both of them. They would hide me from my mother when I had done something my mother Joyce was unhappy with me doing. We were in her home and she and Keg in ours until we moved to the other side of Falmouth but she will always have a special place in my heart. She was assertive and a little bossy but she was always interested in what was best for me and my family. As the years went by we drifted somewhat away but the good memories of Uncle Keg and Aunt Maybelle (my names for them as a child) will remain in my heart. Prayers that each of you will find comfort in that she is at peace and in a better place and taking control. (lol) Childhood memories are among the best we have and am glad that she was a big part in mine. Love to all, Terry England
