

Monte Wayne Clos

October 15, 1950 - June 4, 2019

Monte Wayne Clos, 68, of Falmouth, KY, passed away on Tuesday, June 4, 2019, at his home. Born on October 15, 1950 in Powersville, Kentucky, he was a son of the late Richard Wayne and Edna Elmo Mullikin Clos. On May 8, 1971, he married Teri Jean Foxworthy, and his dear wife survives his passing. A graduate of Manchester High School, Monte completed a four year program with the Auto Body School in Maysville, Kentucky before becoming the foreman at the former Fisher's Body Shop in Falmouth from 1969-1977. From 1977-1987 he went into business for himself, owning and operating Monte's Body Shop in Falmouth. In 1987, he opened and operated Monte's Marine & Sporting Goods with Don Wells until 1994, when he was recruited to join Edgewood Electric, as an electrical contractor and commercial electrician, where he worked until his retirement in 2003. In May 2011, he started working as an agent for the Pendleton County Farmer's Fire Insurance Company, until he retired in February of 2019. A well-known Pendleton County farmer, Monte loved raising angus cattle, and his responsibilities in running his farm were welcome distractions from the busy schedule of every-day life. He appreciated the peace and serenity of his farm. Monte was a deacon and member of the Antioch Mills Christian Church, Berry. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. A founder of the Kincaid Bassmasters, he was the president for 21 years. Always ready for a fishing trip, Monte loved Guist Creek Lake, and he holds the current record for catching a 10 lb. 12 oz. bass there on April 13, 1997. He was a member of the Pendleton County Farmer's Fire Insurance Board of Directors.

In addition to his wife of 48 years and best friend, Teri Clos, he is survived by two children: Monica (Rrenis) Petrey of Sadieville, KY and Landon (Leah) Clos of Falmouth, KY; 3 grandsons: Dakota Harris, David Mason Clos and Ammen Cole Clos; two brothers: Stephen Clos of Wake Forest, NC and Rodney Clos of Lakeland, FL; one sister, Debi Thompson of Milford, OH; two half-brothers: Ricky Clos and Kevin Clos, both of Falmouth, KY; one half-sister, Pamela Parks of Falmouth, KY; one step-sister, Rhonda Kutcher of Union, KY; and a host of extended family and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by his half-sister, Tammy Faye Clos Stewart and his half-brother, Denny Fenner.

Funeral services will be held at 11 am on Saturday, June 8, 2019, at the Antioch Mills Christian Church, 12785 U.S. 27, Berry, KY 41003. The visitations will be from 5-9 pm on Friday, June 7, 2019, and from 10-11 am on Saturday preceding the service at his church. Interment will take place in the Riverside Cemetery, Falmouth. Memorials are suggested to the Antioch Mills Christian Church. Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth, is serving the family.

“ He was a good big brother even though he made me eat beans. Lol Monte thought everybody should love beans. If I wanted to put him in his place, I would tell him dad was coming out of him and that big smile would come across his face and he knew enough was said. I will miss him dearly. Love you big brother. Until we meet again. Your little sister Pam

“ Teri and Family,

So sorry that you are having to suffer the passing of Monte, but so glad that he had had such an opportunity to instill "family" and values in the young among you. Having done that, lived well, and become a devout Christian, he appeared to have been absolutely ready and willing when he was called. No doubt, he would have loved to have stayed among you much longer, but none of you would begrudge his passing into eternal life, into Beulah land, under the circumstances. And what a great picture of my friend you have chosen to attend the services--his personality just jumps off the page. That's how Monte, will be remembered. May God bless.
