“ There are no words that can express our sympathy for your loss. Praise God, you know that you will be together again one day! ”

While I never had the pleasure of meeting your wife, I feel like I know her through Paul. He held her in very high regard and spoke of her often.

Please know that you are not alone during this difficult time. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Also, if we can do anything for you or if you just need a shoulder, please call.

May God ease your pain and help you through this most difficult time.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.
