“ When Casey first introduced me to this sweet lady, we hit it right off. I could make her laugh when I'd use old words she hadn't heard in years. We would always talk about cooking, canning, a simpler time and the Lord. I'm thankful for the short time I knew her, and I'm thankful for the love she had for our whole family, we we shared the same for her. My prayers are with Casey and all of you in these sad times. But just remember, it's a celebration on the other shore! Much love & prayers from our little home to yours ❤️
