“ Joe will truly be missed. I still remember us singing at my sisters wedding together. The day he come over after Bryson was born to visit him. He told Bryson he would give him his first pop. When we were together we always had a good laugh. My prayers are with you aunt and uncle.

“ I went to school with Joe, he graduated the year before me. We also went to Vocational School together and I remember the every time I would see him, he would make me laugh so hard I would cry! I didn't know Joe very well and hadn't seen him since he graduated, but he was an AWSOME guy and he will be missed VERY MUCH. Keep making us laugh Joe! God Bless. I will keep the family in my prayers.

“ *Our hearts are breaking because of the pain you are having to endure...wish there was something we could do to help take it away.
Know that you are loved and allow God and those around you to comfort you. We'll be out of town during the funeral, but we'll be lifting you UP in prayer. Love, Billy and Lisa*
