“ Uncle Ronnie was a good good uncle. Always had a smile on his face. Always enjoyed being up at Little Grandma and Little Grandpas house and us all getting together to eat a wonderful meal and sit on the front porch in the summer heat and enjoy our time together. I liked hearing the stories of Uncle Ronnie dad Bobby and Shirley growing up. 🙏 He will be missed and i know his is at peace now ❤️

“ Gary, Mrs. Baker, and Family,
Please accept condolences on the passing of Ron. Even with the Biblical allowance plus, life is short. I THINK (!) I remember him playing basketball, maybe his senior year at PMHS, so many years ago! Wearing knees pads. Am I right, Gary? I remember the few times that I saw him, he impressed as being intense and tenacious. I'm sure he has been that throughout—“good people....”
May the Good Lord bless.
