“Roxie was my sister-in-law for almost sixty years and I love her very much, Many Sundays when we left Mamaw and Papaw Milner's home, Jerry and I would go visit Harold and Roxie and their wonderful family. Our sons, Mark and Joel, enjoyed visiting their farm and seeing the animals. We were always welcomed by Roxie's beautiful face, Harold's memories he shared and always an invitation to stay for a meal. It is hard to believe that Harold has been gone for over 25 years and Jerry has been gone for 3 years and I bet they are still sharing stories in heaven. The care the children have given their mom was unbelievable and they were such blessings to her to the final breath. May God continue to comfort the family as only He can do. Much love to all of you.
Susie Metzger Milner.
