“ Roger, Marcia and Sami,
My heart aches for you. I pray every day that God gives you strength through these hard days to come. Ryan was a great person who cared deeply about his family and friends. He was always good at putting a smile on my face.

Ryan,

I want to thank you for being an awesome Uncle to Jerin and Jaycee. Jerin always talks about you. He loves you so much. I will never forget the good times old friend.

“ Roger and Marcia, words can not express the sorrow I feel for you both at this time. My heart is so broken for your family, it's inconceivable for me to know how one can endure such a tender loss. I did not know Ryan, but knowing both of you testifies to me what a wonderful son and young man he must have been. Please know my love, thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time. My continual prayer will be that Heavenly Father will be there for you to lean on, and to feel his love as you strive to endure this huge loss and void this has left in your life. May you always feel his comfort in the days, months and years ahead. All my love and prayers.
