“ Dear Mrs. Egan,

I am sorry to learn of Tom's passing. We are almost the same age. In fact I am older. Time really gets away--unfortunately, I had not seen Tom for sometime, but always considered him a wonderful man, someone that I had wished more opportunity to be around. He was a great dispatcher, and a truly pleasant person.

You have my sympathy.

“ I'll never forget when the Kentucky park ranger ticketed me for not believing that I was a Kentucky resident, just because I couldn't remember Bud and Linda's address. I was so relieved when you read in the Outlook that the case was dismissed. God bless you and keep you, Roy & Aunt Marie.
