

Thomas Wayne Hammons

August 6, 1955 - February 17, 2025

Thomas Wayne Hammons, 69, of Park Hills, KY, passed away on Monday, February 17, 2025 at the St. Elizabeth Hospice Care Center in Edgewood. Born on August 6, 1955 in Covington, KY, he was the youngest son of Charles and Amo Barnes Hammons. On October 2, 1982 he married Sheila Wilmes Hammons and she survives his passing. Tom was a Sales Programmer with Cincinnati Ventilating in Florence, KY for many years. He enjoyed following the Cincinnati Reds, Cincinnati Bengals, and the UK Wildcats. Tom loved his home, where he raised his garden, watched his ballgames, and perfected his recipes in the kitchen. He was a lover of all things automotive and enjoyed having some unique vehicles through the years. Tom's greatest love was first and foremost Sheila, but secondly having a good time. He loved to socialize; whether it be at home, traveling the world, or at the lake for the weekend, he was at his happiest surrounded by friends and family. Tom had a fantastic sense of humor and a quick wit with a joke or a jab always at the ready. In addition to his wife Sheila, he is survived by his brother; Larry (Jean) Hammons of Williamstown, KY, his brother and sister in laws, David, Gary, Carol, Tom, Vickie, Gail, Donna, Brenda, Michael, and many nieces and nephews who loved their Uncle Tom.
