“ Tim is my brother, we spent many years growing up. If you knew. Tim, you know what a trickster he was. No one was safe if. Tim wanted to play a prank on you. Story about. Tim and myself..... I was living in. Ft. Thomas and one night, I received loud knocks on my door,I jumped and answered the door, only to my find my younger brother and his two friends. Begging me to resue them from the cops and so I would do anything for. Ox. I told them to go in my. bedroom and go to sleep and would sleep on the couch. I thought all went well, that is until the guy was engaged to came from the Army a day earler. He always cleaned my apartment so I left only to come to find a very angry boyfriend. You see he found three pairs of underwear under my bed all a different size. That was the of end of that of that relationship...when I confronted my brother, he said I didn't really like him anyway. We both began laughing and. Tim knew I couldn't be angry for long, and that was one prank of many to come. I love you. Tim ,life will never be the same...part of me went home with you. You were a wonderful husband, a great dad and grandpa and the best brother a sister could have
Save a spot for me!!!
I Love you and miss you already. Jennifer. Reynolds

Tim and my Dad were very good friends the majority of my life. By default, I was around Tim often. My memories of Tim will always include his infectious laughter. If Tim was laughing at something, no matter how silly or dumb, you found yourself laughing as well. Rest in Peace fine Sir.
