“ What a beautiful lady Mae always was, both inside and out! I don't think I ever saw her without a smile on her face. The world would be such a better place if there were more people like her. Rocky, Cyndi, Randy and Charlie, your mother will be missed and remembered by many. My world was better for having known her. I'm sorry for your loss. MaryKay Crawford

Loved seeing Mae when I did. She was a lovely woman. She will be missed by all who knew her, especially her loving family. She is out of pain and the damn disease is now gone. May she rest in peace.
