

Zelma Wood Insko King

May 22, 1933 - May 22, 2016

Zelma Wood Insko King, 83, of Falmouth, KY, passed away on Sunday, May 22, 2016, at the Maysville Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. Born in Brooksville, KY on May 22, 1933, she was the daughter of the late Adrian Insko, Ruie Belle Downard McClung, and Arthur Jerome McClung, her stepfather. She married Herbert King on November 2, 1957, and her dear husband preceded her in death on October 9, 2000. A 1951 graduate of Bracken County High School, Zelma earned a degree from the Cincinnati Business School in 1953, after which she worked at L.R. Polk in Cincinnati, until she met and married Herbert. Zelma was a homemaker, farmer, and a member of the Oakland Christian Church, where she served as custodian for over 30 years. Zelma will always be remembered for her dedication to her family, her friends, and her church.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Herbert Jerome and Donna King of Falmouth; her grandson, Anthony James Taylor of Williamstown; and a host of extended family and friends.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, May 27, 2016, at Neave United Methodist Church, 3276 Willow Neave Road, Brooksville, KY 41004, with Bro. John Byard and Bro. Bill Clos officiating. The visitation will be from 12-2 p.m. on Friday preceding the service at the church. Interment will take place in the Oakland Cemetery, Pendleton County. Memorials are suggested to the Neave United Methodist Church. Woodhead Funeral Home, Falmouth, is serving the family.
